

Workshops for CT Pride Parade on September 17, 2011 !

This year is the 30th Anniversary of CT PRIDE. We want to be even more festive and fabulous this year and are planning to parade in Bushnell Park!

Join in these workshops and create a large flag or umbrella to show your pride in the 2011 Gay Pride Parade in Bushnell Park. The workshops will be directed by local artist Anne Cubberly who has 20 years of parade creations experience. Each participant will be able to create a colorful umbrella or flag expressing your pride and joy. Each workshop is 3 hours and will include instruction on how to move your flag or umbrella during the parade.

Dates and times for the workshops are as follows:

8/15 8/30 9/6 9/7 9/13

all from 6-9 PM

Charter Oak Cultural Center,
21 Charter Oak Ave, Hartford

(Times and locations subject to change. Contact Mucha, the Parade Coordinator, at the number below.)

We have a lot to be proud of this year –

The end of Don't Ask, Don't Tell

NY Marriage

The extension of transgender discrimination coverage in Connecticut

&

Our 30th Connecticut PRIDE Celebration!

Join us in being a part of this year's parade!

Please call Mucha @ (860) 305-3991 to get scheduled for one of the workshops and to sign up to be in the Parade.

To learn more about Anne Cubberly read a recent article about her in the Hartford Magazine http://www.hartfordmag.com/html/stories/Meet_0711.html or go to her website: www.annecubberly.com

Umbrella Workshop:

3 hours, Each participant will bring an umbrella all other materials provided.

Flag Workshop:

3 hours, all materials provided, we will be working with paint....dress accordingly